Residential Living Standards

Nomen Global is committed to learning excellence. We believe that adherence to high standards of conduct as required by BYU approved off-campus, gender segregated housing greatly enhances the ability to focus and learn.

BYU Honor Code: As a matter of personal commitment, students of Brigham Young University are expected to demonstrate in daily living on and off campus those moral virtues encompassed in [The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints], and will:

- Be Honest
- Obey the law and all campus policies
- Respect others
- Encourage others in their commitment to comply with the BYU Honor Code
- Live a chaste and virtuous life
- Use clean language
- Abstain from drinking alcoholic beverages, tobacco, tea, coffee, and substance abuse

Off-Campus Visiting Hours

Visitors of the opposite sex are permitted in living rooms and kitchens, but not in the bedrooms in off-campus living units. The use of bathroom areas by members of the opposite sex is not appropriate unless emergency or civility dictate otherwise and then only if the safety, privacy, and sensitivity of other residents are not jeopardized. Visiting hours may begin after 9:00 a.m. and extend until 12:00 midnight. Friday night visiting hours may extend until 1:30 a.m. Landlords may establish a shorter visiting period within the time frame stated above if proper notice is given to students. This policy applies to all housing units occupied by single students.

Conduct

All students shall be required to conduct themselves in a manner consistent with the principles of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and the BYU Honor Code. Furthermore, all students living in university-approved housing are required to abstain from possessing, serving, or consuming alcoholic beverages, tobacco, tea, coffee, and harmful drugs. Involvement with gambling, pornographic, erotic or indecent material, disorderly, obscene or indecent conduct or expressions, or with other offensive materials, expressions or conduct or disruption of the peace which, in the sole discretion and judgment of the university, is inconsistent with the principles of the Church and the BYU Honor Code is not permitted in student housing. All guests of students must comply with the Residential Living Standards while on the premises of university-approved housing.

Dress and Grooming Standards

All students of university-approved housing are required to know the BYU dress and grooming standards and abide by them.

Maintaining the Standards

Students are expected to help their guests and other residents understand and fulfill their responsibility under the Residential Living Standards. Students failing to maintain the Residential Living Standards will be subject to disciplinary action. Violation of these standards by the student shall be sufficient cause for eviction.
